Document Description: This document contains a letter from the CIA's Office of Congressional Affairs to the Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence providing written responses to questions that arose at a recent intelligence briefing pertaining to detainee issues. The document is marked TOP SECRET and contains compartmented information.

Exemption (b)(1) (in the entirety): This document contains information that has been properly classified in accordance with Sections 1.4(c) and (d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(1) because it would reveal intelligence activities and methods, as well as foreign activities of the United States government, the disclosure of which reasonably could be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3) (in the entirety): This document contains information relating to intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403g (West Supp. 2009).

Exemption (b)(3) (in part): This document contains information exempted from disclosure pursuant to Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403g (West Supp. 2009), namely, information about CIA official titles, internal organizational data, names, functions, routing information and other similar information.

Exemption b(6) (in part): This document contains the handwritten signature of a CIA employee, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of this information does not outweigh the harm to the individual whose privacy would be violated.

This document does not contain any meaningful, reasonably-segregable information.

Exemption (b)(1) (in part): This document contains information that has been properly classified in accordance with Sections 1.4(c) and (d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(1) because it would reveal intelligence activities, sources and methods, as well as foreign activities of the United States government, the disclosure of which reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3) (in part): This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403g (West Supp. 2009).

Exemption (b)(3) (in part): This document contains information exempted from disclosure pursuant to Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403g (West Supp. 2009), namely, information about CIA official titles, internal organizational data, names, functions, routing information and other similar information.

Exemption b(6) (in part): This document contains the names of congressional staff members, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, namely, increased and unwelcome media interest, as well as exposure to potential approach or harassment by foreign intelligence services. The public interest in disclosure of this information does not outweigh the harm to the individual whose privacy would be violated.

All meaningful, reasonably-segregable portions of this document have been released.

Document Description: This 28-page document contains a two-page email between and among CIA lawyers and other personnel pertaining to draft legal opinions by the Justice Department's Office of Legal Counsel. The email is marked TOP SECRET and contains compartmented information. The email contains the names of CIA personnel. The remainder of the document consists of a transcript of a Senate Judiciary Committee hearing regarding the nomination of Alberto Gonzales to serve as the Attorney General.

Exemption (b)(1) (in part): This document contains information that has been properly classified in accordance with Sections 1.4(c) and (d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is protected from disclosure by exemption (b)(1) because it would reveal intelligence activities and methods, as well as foreign activities of the United States government, the disclosure of which reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Exemption (b)(3) (in part): This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure pursuant to Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2009) and Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403g (West Supp. 2009).

Exemption (b)(3) (in part): This document contains information exempted from disclosure pursuant to Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. section 403g (West Supp. 2009), namely, information about CIA official titles, internal organizational data, names, functions, routing information and other similar information.

Exemption (b)(5) (in part): This document contains information relating to intra-agency pre-decisional deliberations, to wit: discussions between and among CIA lawyers regarding facts to be provided to the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Legal Counsel in the context of seeking the Office of Legal Counsel's legal advice regarding interrogation and detention issues.

Exemption (b)(5) (in part): This document contains attorney-client privileged information to wit: discussions between and among CIA lawyers regarding facts to be provided to the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Legal Counsel in the context of seeking the Office of Legal Counsel's legal advice regarding interrogation and detention issues.

All meaningful, reasonably-segregable portions of this document have been released.
