Subject: RE: Opt-out in the news

Problem with this assertion is twofold:

First, it isn't precisely true – witness the fact that Chicago and Cook County IL have in fact opted out; and the fact that in New York State, we are required to ask each and every law enforcement organization in the state whether or not they wish to participate before we will be permitted to activate them. How does any of that square with the "no opt-out for locals"? Doesn't.

Second, it doesn't obviate the problem when an entire state (viz, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and others) elects to turn its back on the initiative, even in the face of desire by local LEAs to participate.

Subject: Opt-out in the news

I hope everyone had a nice holiday. I've attached links to a few recent articles about opt-out. I just wanted to bring them to your attention in case you hadn't seen them yet.

From today's ICE news clips. AP article on page 10 of the document: "No Opt-Out for Program Checking Legal Status." (Also picked up by the New York Times)
